Sir / Madam,

Sub: Disclosure of material impact of CoVID-19 pandemic

In view of the situations prevailing due to CoVID-19 pandemic, all offices / operations at Hindustan Copper Ltd (HCL) were closed with effect from 25.3.2020 during the initial lockdown period and work from home, using electronic media was encouraged. Essential/ emergency services were however maintained by engaging skeletal staff, as per the Government guidelines.

HCL responded proactively to deal with the CoVID-19 pandemic and followed the Government guidelines / advisories issued in this regard from time to time. From 5.5.2020 onwards, in accordance with the Government instructions for functioning of the offices, 33% of employees were called at the Units and Corporate Office to attend the office and remaining employees were advised to work from Home. However, all employees have been advised to remain available over phone or electronic media for any requirement. Since, 19.05.2020, in accordance with Government instructions for functioning of the offices, 50 % of the total staff is attending Units and offices on all working days. HoDs have been asked to make Rosters keeping in view their work/exigencies in this respect.

HCL has contributed the unspent CSR fund of Rs.22 lakhs and one day salary of all employees of Rs.35.22 Lakh to the PM CARES Fund to help our country to combat Covid-19 pandemic.
